

Global Junior Challenge, Rome (Italy)

The final event for the Global Junior Challenge will take place in Rome from 3rd to 7th December, 2000. The event, hosted by the City of Rome in the framework of the Global Cities Dialogue, will be made up of three elements: an International Conference "Youth into the digital age" organised by the City of Rome to explore in depth the issues raised by the Global Junior Challenge; an extensive exhibition of the most significant participating projects and a special Award for the most significant projects implemented in different countries across the world. The Mayor of Rome, Francesco Rutelli, will hand over the prizes to the winning projects during the Awards Ceremony which will take place at the Campidoglio City Hall the night of the 4th December 2000.

www.gjc.comune.roma.it